

ALL ARE INVITED TO JOIN US

Symposium to Foster Awareness for People with Disabilities

April 5, 2008

Office of Religious Education
St. John Neumann Center
146 Metlars Lane
Piscataway NJ 08859

Registration is required.

Cost: $10 includes lunch
(scholarships are available)

For information contact
Pat Martin, 732-562-1990, ext. 1310
pmartin@diometuchen.org

Workshops will be held on many types of disabilities including autism, and those disabilities affecting vision, speech, hearing and learning.

Keynote speaker:

Sister Janice McGrane, SSJ

Disability Ministry: the Heart of the Matter

Sister Janice is a noted author and Chair of the Board of Directors for Liberty Resources, Inc. (the Disability Advocacy Center for Southeastern Pennsylvania). Sister Janice began the Disability Ministry in the Metuchen Diocese in 1985. She left the diocese in 1992 to become the Disability Awareness Coordinator for the Philadelphia Archdiocese.

The Silent Choir which will offer song at the closing prayer service in the Chapel at St. John Neumann Center. The Silent Choir is a group of women from Central Jersey who are deaf, hard-of-hearing, blind or speech impaired, or are learning to communicate with sign language. They sign to impart the meaning of recorded or live music.